RIN 3038-AC61

I believe in freedom of choice. I enjoyed 400:1 leverage and it was reduced to 100:1.

I believe if you reduce it 10:1 you will destroy the retail forex market.

You will not be helping any of the forex customers and traders.

What is your motive to ruin the retail market?

What will happen is that the brokers will be forced to establish offshore branches.

Thank you.
