

From: buffalo76834@yahoo.com
Sent: Friday, January 15, 2010 8:40 PM
To: secretary <secretary@CFTC.gov>
Subject: Public Comment Form

Below is the result of your feedback form. It was submitted by (buffalo76834@yahoo.com) on Friday, January 15, 2010 at 20:39:54

commenter_subject: NO to your sorry changes!

commenter_comments:

I am a Forex trader who has been practicing and honing my skills for 5 years in hopes of getting proficient enough to trade regularly in a real money account at some point. Your changes would make it much more difficult on a small trader like myself. You have made several changes over the last year and the way it is looking you will "root out" all of us small time investors, little by little with your changes. It is ok to make changes to make brokers more responsible and to safeguard our trading accounts but we don't need any more of your changes that keep making it harder and harder on the little guy to trade. QUIT JACKING WITH THE SYSTEM. I have been working hard to learn this spot forex trading and the last thing I need are more requirements to make it almost impossible for a small guy like me to trade. SPEND more of your time making laws to thwart criminals instead of making it hard on the poor honest person! Thanks commenter_name: Bryan Bourland commenter_withhold_address_on: ON commenter_address1: J.P Rizal St., Ibabao commenter_city: Mandaue City

commenter_state: Cebu

commenter_zip: 6014

commenter_phone: 63 32 345 5281
