

From: Ron tastic <rontastic42@yahoo.com>
Sent: Saturday, April 24, 2010 1:59 PM
To: Metals Hearing <metalshearing@CFTC.gov>
Subject: Comodity regulation

Dear sir,

I am writing to thank you for an oppurtunity to comment on precious metals position limits. As a (very) small investor who believes that silver is an important way for mm family to keep up with inflation I would like to ask you to please limit the short positions any one party can purchase. I believe the market should set it's own price not tailored government regulation or lack of regulation.

Sincerely, Ron Hinde