The SEC is responsible for regulating the fund industry. But unfortunately, the SEC is like a weak parent with no backbone, no sense of discipline, and no moral values. They let their children get away with murder. And then, lacking any moral training, these kids graduate, leave home and go to work in the real world, for their friends in the fund industry—the very people the SEC was supposed to be regulating in order to protect investors.

Dear Sir,

Thank for the opportunity to comment on the issue of position limits for precious metals. Please establish a speculative position limit in COMEX silver of no more than 1500 contracts. Please restrict any hedging exemptions from those limits to legitimate hedgers. Please stop the levels of concentration in COMEX silver futures that have been experienced over the past few years on the short side of the market.

Sincerely,
Alan Crow
