Subject: Silver and gold manipulaiton

I am a Canadian with my retirement funds in Silver, silver stocks and gold stocks as I watch the market it is apparent that Silver prices are being controlled by banks with large positions who manipulate the price. I did listen to the hearings where GATA pointed out and brought forward the U.K. whistle blower and am amazed the government of the USA allows this to go on. As a Canadian I look to the USA to represent Democratic and fair trade practices what is going on here makes it difficult to continue to believe in the integrity of the USA as the leader of the free world.
