

From: Maurice McDonald <speedymac@nc.rr.com>
Sent: Thursday, April 8, 2010 6:35 PM
To: Metals Hearing <metalshearing@CFTC.gov>; j@silverstockreport.com
Subject: fraudulent hearings

---

A mere mortal person would have been put in jail long ago for comitting much less fraud than JP Morgan and friends have been allowed to perpetuate on the silver and gold markets for years.
Are you, the CFTC, compicite in this fraudulent behavior by ignoring it? and by pretending to hold hearings as if to correct or eliminate this fraud?
If so, what should your punishment be?
Should you be put in jail?
Or merely replaced by others who won't or can't eliminate the fraud?
If you continue to ignore this fraud, doesn't that make you a fraud???

A concerned lawabiding citizen of the once "greatest?" country on Earth