I ask that the CFTC panelist who sat in on the meeting on the 25th of March, 2010, take appropriate action against all those who have, beyond a shadow of a doubt, committed the world's greatest fraud which has robbed and continues to rob those who have bought silver and gold (on paper contracts) or in much clearer terms, silver and gold that does not exist above ground and may take as many as twenty years of mining to produce the amount they currently have on paper contracts which continues to grow daily as more people are led into the Ponzi Slaughter House which has been going on for evidently quite sometime, basically allowed by those who you have replaced. Were your predecessors aware of what was admitted by Mr. Christian who said he has no concern for not being able to meet the contracts promises of XXX amount of silver or gold since cash settlements are just one of the many options for covering all the paper contracts which were bought for metal and not cash. With the amount of U.S. paper dollars that the federal reserve has printed up I am sure that they do have all the cash they need for cash settlements but I have two questions, (1) What were the initial contracts for, metal or paper? (2) With the trillions of U.S. dollars that China holds along with other Bric countries, how many more paper dollars do we really think they would be willing to accept? For that matter, how many Americans who bought contracts for thousands or millions of ounces of silver or gold would really want paper dollars as opposed to physical silver or gold. Please consider what was allowed before the current CFTC and what the ultimate outcome will be. As Andrew Mcquire has come forward and placed himself and his reputation on the line to make things right from the mess that was created by certain banks that think they are too big to ?????? I say to the panel of the CFTC; Is this what those men who sat in that room (better than 200 years ago) where they did what was considered wrong by the British, so that OUR UNITED STATES of AMERICA and her posterity would someday become a nation of PONZI SCHEMES? I truly believe that the panel I witnessed online was/is an intelligent panel and basically know that it's too late for those who have been a part of the fraud to realize what Our United States are and what they will someday go back to if we get rid of the turn coats that are doing their best to become the wealthiest at the expense of our United States of America. Back then treason was a very serious offence.....
