Subject: Gold and silver

I would like to see less silver and gold prices being determined by futures and paper. It's all a bunch of fraud. Many of these people never had nor ever will have the product in their hands. How can we go on letting them determine the real market value of gold, silver and other precious metals. Let the free market system reign again, just as it does with any other commodity. Bring back integrity and honesty to these markets please. JDL
