Dear Sir/Madame,

For a number of years I've been watching and reading about this fraud that is going on in the metals market. I don't have to explain as you know the details.
I sure wish that there will be enough courage to finally take a stand on the part of the regulators and do what must be done to stop this. If a stand is taken your country may regain some of the respect for justice lost over the past few years.

Take a stand!

Sincerely,

Heinz Reinhard
