

Gentlemen:

April 10, 2010

Attached is a letter I sent to Attorney General Spitzer. His response was that he showed much interest in: No Speculative Position
Limits on the trading of silver. Unfortunately
I have misplaced his letter to me regarding that.

My same letter was sent to AG
Andrew Cuomo. It went from Albany
to the Broadway office in N.Y. City.

As you can see the response from James Gallo was a typical line of garbage which one would expect from a bankrupt state.

Yours in Freedom
Larry Duprey
Freedom Family - Dec of 155.

69 Manor Avenue
Copiague, New York 11726
November 15, 2003

Mr. Eliot Spitzer
Attorney General
State of New York
Office of the Attorney General
The Capitol
Albany, New York 12224-0341

O.F.T.C.
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY
2010 APR 21 PM 3 55

Dear Mr. Spitzer:

You, Mr. Attorney General, have been a "Guardian Angel". You are ~~Seabiscuit~~ running years ahead of the SEC which has trouble waking up! You no doubt will be the next governor of New York State. I suspect that the thought has crossed your mind.

It appears that behind every door lies a criminal surprise, which brings me to the Comex headquartered in New York State, the CFTC and the commodity known as silver. According to Barron's Dictionary of Finance and Investment Terms the CFTC is and I quote: "An independent agency created by Congress in 1974 responsible for regulating the United States commodity futures and options markets. The CFTC is responsible for insuring market integrity and protecting market participants against manipulation, abusive trade practices, and fraud."

So whatever happened to the law of supply and demand regarding silver? There is no law of supply and demand when it comes to trading silver. More paper silver is traded in a single day than can be mined in one to three years. Certain companies, lending institutions and influential people have been operating and manipulating this caper, illegally, for the past 15 years. There is no transparency, everything is secret. Buyers and sellers are anonymous.

When you consider the following crimes regarding Worldcom (MCI), Enron, Tyco, Global Crossing, Adelphia, Arthur Anderson, Putnam, Canary, the Generally Accepted Accounting Procedures disguised and adopted to fleece the shareholders of America, you have white collar crime. A failure of trust perpetrated by these criminals who use their influence and money to pay a fine and deny any wrong doing. Mutual funds with trillions of dollars being stolen by a tidal wave of individual greed. The stench will remain for years. Wall Street quite frankly stinks. There is no trust!

I believe the time has come for the Attorney General to shake up this criminal enterprise, regarding the buying and selling of paper silver, through leasing arrangements that the best minds in the world would have trouble grasping. When it comes to silver the Comex and CFTC look the other way and there are no speculative position limits on silver. This by any measure is a monstrous breach of ethics. There is no honor and no integrity, only denials and silence from these agencies which were established to protect the people.

I've got a lot on my mind and I believe that basically you are an honest man and I hope you will make inquiries forthwith.

With much respect,
Sincerely,

Lawrence A. Dupuy
Resident of NYS for 70 years

P.S. As an after thought, on December 18, 2002, Blanchard and Co. Inc., and Herbert Davies; plaintiffs, versus Barrick Gold Corporation; J.P. Morgan Chase and Co.; and ABC Companies, defendants filed a complaint for injunctive relief in the U.S. District Court, eastern district of Louisiana.

On September 8, 2003, the District Court denied the defendants motion to dismiss Blanchard's claims under United States Antitrust Laws. On October 15, 2003 a motion of reconsideration filed by the defendants was denied. The next procedure will be the discover phase.

I've read the complaint and the proof and in my mind it is staggering. Only time will tell. The plaintiff is asking two billions dollars in damages for their clients.

P.P.S. Why do I mention this? Because silver is a commodity and precious metal and has been in a structural deficit for 15 years and is still trading for $5.00/oz.

This is impossible without manipulation. No other commodity can claim this statement!

ANDREW M. CUOMO
Attorney General

STATE OF NEW YORK
OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

ERIC CORNGOLD
Executive Deputy Attorney General
Division of Economic Justice

DAVID A. MARKOWITZ
Investor Protection Bureau

(212) 416-8218

October 27, 2008

Lawrence A. Dupuy
69 Manor Avenue
Copiague, NY 11726

Re: CFTC, et al.
Our Ref. No.: 08/001755

Dear Mr. Dupuy:

Thank you for your communication with the Investment Protection Bureau of Attorney General Andrew Cuomo's office. We appreciate your willingness to provide information and to share your concerns. We are unable, however, to provide you with legal advice.

Please note that this letter merely acknowledges your correspondence. Because of the volume of such correspondence, the Bureau is unable to act on every matter brought to its attention. If an action is ultimately undertaken, someone from the Bureau will contact you.

Very truly yours,

James Gallo
Legal Assistant

jg