To the CTFC as for the regulation for the 10-1 leverage on the forex it would take allot of peoples job away from them. I myself rely on the forex market to make a living and the 10-1 leverage would take that away from me and my family.

1 idea to correct this is to maybe have a minimum time experience like you must have a year experience to get 100-1 leverage

Thanks allot and have and great day.
