Dear FXCM

As a forex trader I would like to say what I will be hurt if We lower the leverage at to 10:1

I decided to open an account first because I love the advantage that give me 100 to 1 leverage.

I personal think that If this law 10 to 1 leverage is to protect the novice trader, is going to go agains Him or Her, because He or She is going to invest more of his own capital, He or She will get more often margin calls, ending up loosing all his investment quicker instead of having 100 to 1 leverage.
