Subject: Regulation of Retail Forex

Re: RIN 3038-AC61

I am a small scale forex trader. My operation consists of me and my computer. The only way I can afford to trade is with leverage. If you limit my access to leverage at 10:1, you will take away my only source of income.

Your intentions may be altruistic, but the results of such meddling will destroy the livelihood of many you are trying to protect. Read: ME.

Please back off and get the hell out of my life,

Phil Crain
