Subject: New 10:1 Leverage Proposal

Hi

If you guys change Forex Trading to 10:1 leverage, Forex trading will no longer be a viable trading instrument.

Even at 100:1, It is barely enough leverage to make Forex Trading worth it, but it is at least manageable. If we as Forex traders over leverage ourselves, the brokers will automatically close out the positions. The banks protect themselves. We as Forex traders understand leverage and how it works for us and or against us. You already lowered it to 100:1, leave it alone, please!! This is how many of us make a living. You will put the majority of us out of business if you lower it to 10:1. Thank you for your consideration,

Tim Primavera Sr.
