Subject: Regulation of Retail Forex

ID Number:
RIN 3038-AC61

I am writing to protest the proposed changes to retail forex requirements. Leverage should be our choice, not the government's. More importantly, if the margin requirement is $10,000, who can trade forex? Only rich people. In other words, rich people have the opportunity to get richer. Those of us who are not rich yet, will have yet again been blocked from the opportunity. Whether or not to trade forex is an individual's decision. We're all adults. We don't the government to babysit us. Don't change the requirements.

Thank you.
