RE: RIN 3038-AC61

Sir:
Over and over we hear the administration/government representatives claim they want a strong dollar. Then CFTC thinks changing leverage in US accounts is a good idea. Don't you realize this only drives US dollars overseas and out of the country thus weakening the dollar even more? My money left when NFA went to FIFO and 100:1 leverage. Now you want to go to 10:1. What are you people thinking?
Sincerely,
John Welch
