Subject: Regulation of Retail Forex

---

Dear Sirs:

Re: Identification Number: RIN 3038-AC61

I am a client of Forex.com and have an account with them. Please do not regulate the retail Forex market such that I would have to have a margin of 10:1. I could not afford to come up with 10K USD to use my account. Please leave it alone at 100:1. If I made a bad trade and lost my money, it is money that is earmarked to use in the Forex market and it is my responsibility. Please allow people like me to take that risk with my own money. If you change the margin to 10:1, I could not even play the market!

Thank You,
