Subject: Regulation of Retail Forex

I am very discouraged and disappointed that the new 10:1 leverage proposal is even being considered and want to express my outrage about it in hopes that my voice is heard. I am a successful forex trader and believe in the industry despite the rampant fraud and scam artists that have tainted it. This rule serves as a final injustice to the legitimate traders such as myself as it would effectively end our ability to do what we love doing inside the United States. PLEASE RECONSIDER!!!
