Subject: Retail Forex Trading

Dear Sir/Madam

I am writing to you to object to any plans you may have to bring in measures to control the Leverage that brokers offer in the Forex Market. Traders like myself are reliant on this type of leverage that brokers offer,

Why...well because most traders like me have limited account sizes. So to enable me to trade at a worthwhile and sensible level, Leverage is essential.

It would also go a long way to preventing new traders from entering the market as account deposits would have to rise, this would ruin a very exciting industry.

Regards

Mr Brown
