

South San Francisco Baden high school South City

Septembers 1997 – June 1999

US high school diploma

Major: regular general education 3.5 GPA

Beau of security investigation certified

- Department of consumer affairs, licensed member September 1996 to June 09 1999

Work objective Experiences Education

To Use my entry level credentials and skills best meets employment position for growth provide strong job Cooperation that meets jobs entry level requirements credentials employs standers achievable providence though employer recommendations

Economic that's the job market has to offer while maintaining my current leaning experience

Current WORK EXPERIENCE summery cover letter by department of California consumer's affairs education continued education

- St John church community volunteer job duties floral cleaning sweeping gardening duties sorted card board boxes for St John's Episcopal church provide online basic job basic financial consumer protection while leaning and socially continued education though the beau security investigation online education governing system that's operated

Current credential license affliction abiding basic laws and basic standers citizen procedures as a volunteer

- As a certified applicant member the most strongest governing licensing system in the state of California its common communities work shop that has endure in earned trust having fourteen years of experiences the employers can depend on the services and protecting this aim is to be a safety harness official deterrence that support basic essential equality secure in a doggie dog economic working environment basic land scalping and at the St Johns Church I'm proud to be an qualifying applicant to the employer communities that enables' employers values of life and customs Fairly to serve and protect chance to be employed at employers request if employed as a experiences entry level greeting the authority of WHEW accurate proceeding and doggie dog world basic narratives environmental care education security.