Subject: STOP the (CFTC) forex leverage change

Dear Sirs,

I am against the leverage change that the (CFTC) announced on January 13, 2010. It will be a disaster for small traders. This will only limit the ability for the little guy (me) to make a living.

At a time when unemployment is growing, forcing small traders, who are just barely making a living back into the job market will be the end result of such an action.

Please reconsider this action,
Tracy Stockwell
