Subject: 10/1 leverage outrage

Gentlemen.

I have been trading Forex for a few years now.

And in this economy, I see it as my only means of being able to retire.
With out giving up everything when I reach retirement age.

As a former Marine, I feel a lot of patriotism to this country. And would like for my money to continue to support jobs here in the United States.

But, This leverage change, Would force me to money my money abroad.

I'm not asking for 500/1 leverage, But currently I use 200/1 on 1 account,
And 100/1 on the other. Please leave these alone.

Thank you
