Subject: Regulation of Retail Forex

Dear Sir/Madame,

I am currently using a Demo Trading account and will soon open a Live one in a couple of months, due to your announcement of changes that may take effect on the leverage limit for the US I will no longer consider opening a Live account in the US, your limits are just far too small for me to trade to supply me of an income and I'm sure a lot of customers will be doing the same.

Regards,
Many Thanks,
Ms. Tina L. Allison
