Subject: Regulation of Retail Forex

To Those Concerned:

I am 56 year old native born citizen of the U.S.A. Both my parent's European ancestors were establish on this continent around 1810. My Choctaw and Cherokee ancestors were here for several thousand years before that. Many of my male ancestors have fought for this country on foregin battle fields. Some never came home. They died for liberty.

Please do not take away more of our freedoms. Without 100 : 1 leverage the little guy has no chance in the retail forex market. Only the big deep pockets who can take large enough positions so that small moves are significant even at 10 : 1 leverage. Without 100 : 1 leverage.... I would not have an interest in being a retail forex customer.
