I learned through my brokerage FX Solutions of the proposal to reduce leverage on US Forex trading from 100:1 to 10:1.

I am a modest trader using Forex trading as an investment vehicle to help with my retirement.

I want to let you know that if this proposal went into effect it would basically kill Forex trading for me. It would knock me out of the market.

Please don't let that happen.

Sincerely,

Richard K Jones
