Subject: Regulation of Retail Forex

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen of the U.S. Commodity Futures Trading Commission,

I am writing to express my opinion by saying that I am against the proposed regulations of, "leverage in retail forex customer accounts being subject to a 10-to-1 limitation".

I believe that all traders should have the right to choose the amount of leverage that is appropriate for his/her risk appetite, and that this basic principle of 'choice' is being threatened by the proposed regulations.

It saddens me to see our ability to move money between hands threatened by the potential choking hands of increased regulation. Must liberty really be at stake for our own protection?

Thank you for hearing my opinion in regards to this proposal, identified as RIN 3038-AC61.
