Subject: New regulations?

I do not understand the purpose behind the new proposed regulations regarding margin and Forex trading. I make a modest living in these difficult times trading spot forex, and the proposed new regulations would shut me down entirely. Tell my WHY this government appears to be closing every avenue for the individual to get ahead in the name of trying to 'save' us? I bequeath you to cease and desist. I have managed for 56 years without your 'help'. I sincerely wish the government would stay out of my life. The unemployment in the US is keeping ME out of a job, and if you take this from me, I can think of nowhere else to turn.
