Subject: New FX regulation

Hello,

I come across a new regulation you plan to implement, that is : lower Forex leverage from 100:1 to 10:1.
If that had to happen I would simply fold my Forex account, may be re-open with an unregulated brokerage firm but surely move my money somewhere else. In any case "CFTC" would represent a label to escape from in the first place.
Is that what you are after ? You saw the branch you are sitting on, ask the brokerage firms their feelings about it.

Hope you think twice

All the best
