Subject: leverage in retail forex customer accounts would be subject to a 10-to-1 limitation,

Why control persons wish to engage in forex or any trading?.If people make bad money management practice on 1,000 will they not do it on 100,000.Is the Ftc trying to sequee out small players?.Are you send persons to set up Outside the Usa and send trade underground?.In a true free market model how can you prevent major losses and allow hugh profits. It really looks like a hidden agenda
