Subject: Regulation of Retail Forex

Dear Secretary –

Please add my concern to the new rules being considered that will limit the leverage to 10:1 on US-based Forex trading accounts. At this low rate of leverage I will be forced to move my account to a foreign-based resource that still practices 100:1 leveraging.

It seems that regulations could be in order and in my view should be aimed at the offending Forex brokerage houses themselves, not the individual investor.

Thank you for your consideration.
