in my opinion you should leave the forex 100:1 alone... i mean come on the guys overseas are trading in the ive seen up to 700:1 area... and to say you are safegaurding us agianst ourselves i mean get real anyone who is into forex got here through the learning of trading stocks and such.... so they know their indicators and their charts..... what you should do is leave us alone you are messing with our livelyhood.....always thinking the whatifs about losing.... what bout the whatifs for the people who do well at this.....????????????????????????????????????
