Changing the leverage requirements from 100-1 to 10-1 will greatly effect my ability to earn income in a negative way. I depend on the extra income from my Forex account to suppliment my income in the difficult economic environment.

I still have a regular job but the looming threat of a layoff hangs over my head everyday. Now this new reduced leverage regulation threatens my ability to earn income even further.

Please leave the leverage rules at the current levels.

Thank you
