Subject: Proposed regulation of retail forex

I strongly oppose this proposed regulation(RIN 3038-AC61) because you are going backwards to the days of only big banks were able to trade forex. Please let ordinary americans choose their risk levels per their means, appetite and trading strategy. Passing this regulation will take millions of americans out of the forex market.It's worth noting that the maximum Forex retail margin in Europe is 200:1. Shall we move foward instead?

Thanks
