Subject: Regulation of Retail Forex

Please do not alter the leverage for the forex market. I have spent much time practicing so that I will be able to successfully trade the 4x hoping to make a difference in my life just as many of my friends have.

And that is a result of the current leverage.

Also, by changing the leverage, you will be making a conscious decision to send business elsewhere which would do nothing to support the U.S. economy.

Thank You!
