RIN 3038-AC61

With regard to the above referenced proposed regulation, don't you people think you have done enough damage already? The FOREX market has been successful precisely because of regulators such as yourself staying the heck out! And I for one vote that you continue to stay out.

So far your regulations have caused massive amounts of money to leave the United States and go to foreign countries. Are you people even American? Or are you Al Qaeda in disguise or communists or socialists? DO NOT PASS THE ABOVE PROPOSED REGULATION!

Is protecting the average investor your goal, or is there some hidden agenda here? Your recent decisions have done nothing but damage the U.S. retail forex market and have done nothing to actually help the individual investor. Who among you is benefitting from the decisions you are making?

If you pass the above legislation, you can expect massive lawsuits. I will be the first to sign up.
