Subject: Regulation of Retail Forex

Thank you for being concerned with my financial well-being. However, I do not want or need you to make decisions for me. I am concerned that your proposal for a 10:1 leverage rather than the currently allowance of 100:1 will drastically affect my ability to trade in the Forex. I understand you are attempting to protect people, but we are adults with our own minds and do not need additional governmental intervention in my life.
