This is ludicrous. I will not sit by and let the government take away MY freedom to make choices with MY money! If you want to advise us fine, but you are NOT! and will NOT! be in control of my money. If this passes all accounts I hold will be moved off shores.

We do not need "Mommy and Daddy" holding our hands. The day I turned 18 I was in complete control of my life, and I'd just as soon it stayed that way. That is what America is supposed to be about FREEDOM! I don't care what the issues is, changing leverage, margin requirement the fact remains you are DICTATING to me what I can and cannot do. And since there is no form of illegal purchases being made who are YOU to DICTATE to ME? I served six years with the National Guard. Is this what I was defending? Someone making choices for me? I would like to think not! Quit wasting taxpayer money, MY money with hair brained ideas such as this. Instead what about doing something constructive. Maybe create a website that educates and informs the masses.

Disgusted,

Mickey M.
