Hi,

I am a trader in forex from NJ usa . I oppose 10:1 leverage proposal. It is tough for a biggner to invest so much money and also to maintain this much amount in forex retail account. This rule will discourage retail investor from forex market. I am a full time daytrader and some times I am able to pay my bills and children fee from the monthly earning that I get from forex. Do not pass 10:1 leverage rule.

Thank
