Subject: Regulation of Retail Forex

Dear Secretary:

This comes to you to voice my opposition to the increase in margin requirements for retail Forex traders. I ask you to please reconsider this matter and see that it does not increase. As a Forex trader, I understand the risk that is involved in trading in the Forex markets. I constantly study and view educational material on how to trade and reduce my risk. I do not need the government to protect me in this area.

Sincerely yours,
Kelly G. Beach
