Subject: Regulation of Retail Forex

Good day Sir/madam my name is Harris I am from the Virgin Islands and I am involved in forex trading. It was just brought to my attention that there is a proposal from you guys (The CFTC) to reduce the current trading leverage from 100:1 to 10:1. I am of the opinion that is not a very good move & me and a lot of other traders strongly disagree with that proposal. Please think twice before you decide to make that foolish move to reduce the leverage for that would be a very detrimental move on your behalf. Do have a good day.
