Good day,

I am surprised at this proposal of yours. Whats next? Perhaps you will control where and how I spend my salary? Or perhaps you will decide how much I may spend on a car?

This is ludicrous and will only lock a lot of small traders out of the market. Perhaps that is what you are trying to do as this can be a profitable way for many of us to earn a crust, so we can pay more tax for the Government to bail the banks out.
