Subject: Regulation of Retail Forex

Regarding Regulation: RIN 3038-AC61

I am a small capitalized forex trader. Reducing the leverage to 10:1 would eliminate my business. I make my living from this endeavor. It is a modest living, but it is what I do. I use a 200:1 leverage most of the time. Sometimes, I use a 400:1 leverage.

I am not in a trade long enough for this leverage to be an issue. Most of my trades last minutes to one hour and then I am back out of the market. Please do not change the maximum leverage limitation on forex trading to 10:1. Once again it would kill my business.

Thank you for your concern in this matter.
