Subject: 'Regulation of Retail Forex'

Hi

It is my understanding that you are taking public comment related to the following: Leverage in retail forex customer accounts would be subject to a 10-to- 1 limitation. RIN 3038-AC61

I think you guys (the government) have done so much damage already – going to force upon us a health care bill that we do not want--about to take public comment on taking all of our 401K and IRA's away from us--put us trillions of dollars in debt to mention a few things. Now you want to screw around with the retail forex accounts. What are you guys going to do next. God forbid.

LEAVE OUR ACCOUNTS ALONE.
