Subject: coment on proposed limiting of margin to 10:1

I am adamantly opposed to lowering the margin limit below 100:1 in Forex trading. I have traded stocks & options for over 20 years and and now getting ready to trade on a small scale Forex. I will limit my trading to .1 lot per $5000. of cash in my account as a conservaative limitaton of my own, but think if you lower requirement to 10:1, it will only lower the lifquidity of the market as there will be a lot of small traders who will no longer trade.
