Subject: Proposed Leverage

To Whom It May Concern ,

This proposal is ridiculous as it gives all other nation(s) an unfair advantage to any Forex trader in the United States . If this proposal goes thru . . . it will mark a massive exodus of money being wired to offshore / overseas account .

I sincerely hope that this proposal does not go thru . It's bad enough that we're restricted to 100:1now 10:1 !!! This is not the solution . . . put us in a level playing field with the rest of the world of traders .

Sincerely ,

werner camoras : FX Trader
