To whom it may concern:

I would like to categorically state that I am opposed to the new leverage regulation that you propose to impose on Forex trading. This will effectively close the door to my participation in the forex market. I have read your statements and I strongly disagree with your reasoning. It is actually more risky to trade under the new proposal and the rewards almost nonexistent. The only reason I can see for this decision is for the big boys to be bigger. Come on. I know I have a very minuscule vote but have a sense of fair play. The big boys will always get their dough. Let us have a piece of the pie, too.

Sincerely,
Dennis C Warr, retail Forex trader
