Subject: Regulation of Retail Forex

To whom it may concern:

I would like to voice my opposition to the proposed regulation limiting US firms to offering their customers 10:1 leverage. I do not think this will protect the consumer, it actually will hurt the consumer. First it will drive money overseas from customers seeking higher leverage, hurting the revenues of US firms while benefiting foreign firms. Second, it will further endanger the US consumer who chooses to open an account at an overseas firm that is not as safe of a custodian as a US firm.

Sincerely,
Brad Zorb
