Dear Mr David Stawick,

Please do NOT change the leverage of forex margin to 10:1.
If you do, it will successfully squash all the "little guys" that trade forex on a small scale, myself included.

We would no longer afford to participate, and you would make forex a big player only venue as it was once before in the past.

We do not need more regression in this world, but to advance ourselves and let everyone in for their fair chance at trading forex.

Please give EVERYBODY a fair chance and keep the maximum margin at 100:1.
