Subject: 'Regulation of Retail Forex' RIN 3038-AC61

Hi there,

Please review my comment as:

Regulations Info	Example Currency	Contract Size	Maximum Leverage	Margin Required	Notes Opinion
Current	USD/JPY	1 Lot ($ 100 000)	100:1 Leverage	$ 1 000	Too Much
Proposed	USD/JPY	1 Lot ($ 100 000)	10:1 Leverage	$ 10 000	Stupid to Idiot
Best	USD/JPY	1 Lot ($ 100 000)	500:1 Leverage	$ 200	Smart!

So, No Big Money = No Big Gambler! If you're country has more rich men, then go on, but if you're country now got more poor people then consider the smart way. World will laugh at your Proposed idea and/or plan, while others go low for retail, but you go high for less Grocery market. In the long run, you will create more poor society if they loss from their trade.

Hope you like it, and thanks.

John Handoyo
