To whom it may concern!!

I just heard that the government wants to get involved once again where they really don't belong and change us from 100:1 to 10:1.

When will you people just keep out of things and let the grown ups do what we have always done-- make money without government intervention!!

Please stay out of this until you are able to run the country's finances properly.

The small businessman is the backbone of our country and it would do you well to remember this.

Sincerely;
PFale
